

Ficus virens — Banyan

Scientific Name:

Ficus virens

Common Name:

Banyan

Register Number:

175 & 176

Location of Tree:

Banyan Ridge, Redcliffe Road,
Noonamah NT

GPS:

-12.64005, 131.11828

Categories of Significance:

Aesthetic
Size
Age
Cultural Group
Habitat

Year Listed:

1994

Rising out of a sea of Eucalyptus woodland these two large Banyans provide an important contribution to the landscape and are well known landmarks on Redcliffe Road.

Their large canopies provide a sheltered habitat for many other rainforest species growing in the shaded leafy loam below. Vehicle tracks are testament to frequent visits by local residents to enjoy shade and abundant wildlife.

Proudly sponsored by
 Northern Territory
 Government