

Old Katherine Police Station

Scientific Names:

Tamarindus indica, Albizia lebbbeck, Delonix sp.

Common Names:

Tamarind, Chattering Tree, Poinciana

Register Number:

32

Location of Tree:

Corner of First Street and Giles Street, Katherine NT

GPS:

-14.46491, 132.26475

Categories of Significance:

Aesthetic
Unique Location

Number of Trees:

3

Date Planted:

Approx. 1960's

Planted By:

Sergeant Bob Woods and his wife

Year Listed:

1992

A stand of various trees planted on the grounds of the old Katherine Police Station for shade. Katherine's old police station was just a tin shed, but the grounds are now home to the Katherine Motel. The Tamarind tree planted by Sergeant Bob Woods and his wife.

