

Adansonia gregorii — Boab

Scientific Name:

Adansonia gregorii

Common Name:

Boab

Affectionately Known As:

Governor's Tree

Register Number:

4

Location of Tree:

Fitzroy Station, Gregory NT

GPS:

-15.73875, 130.50881

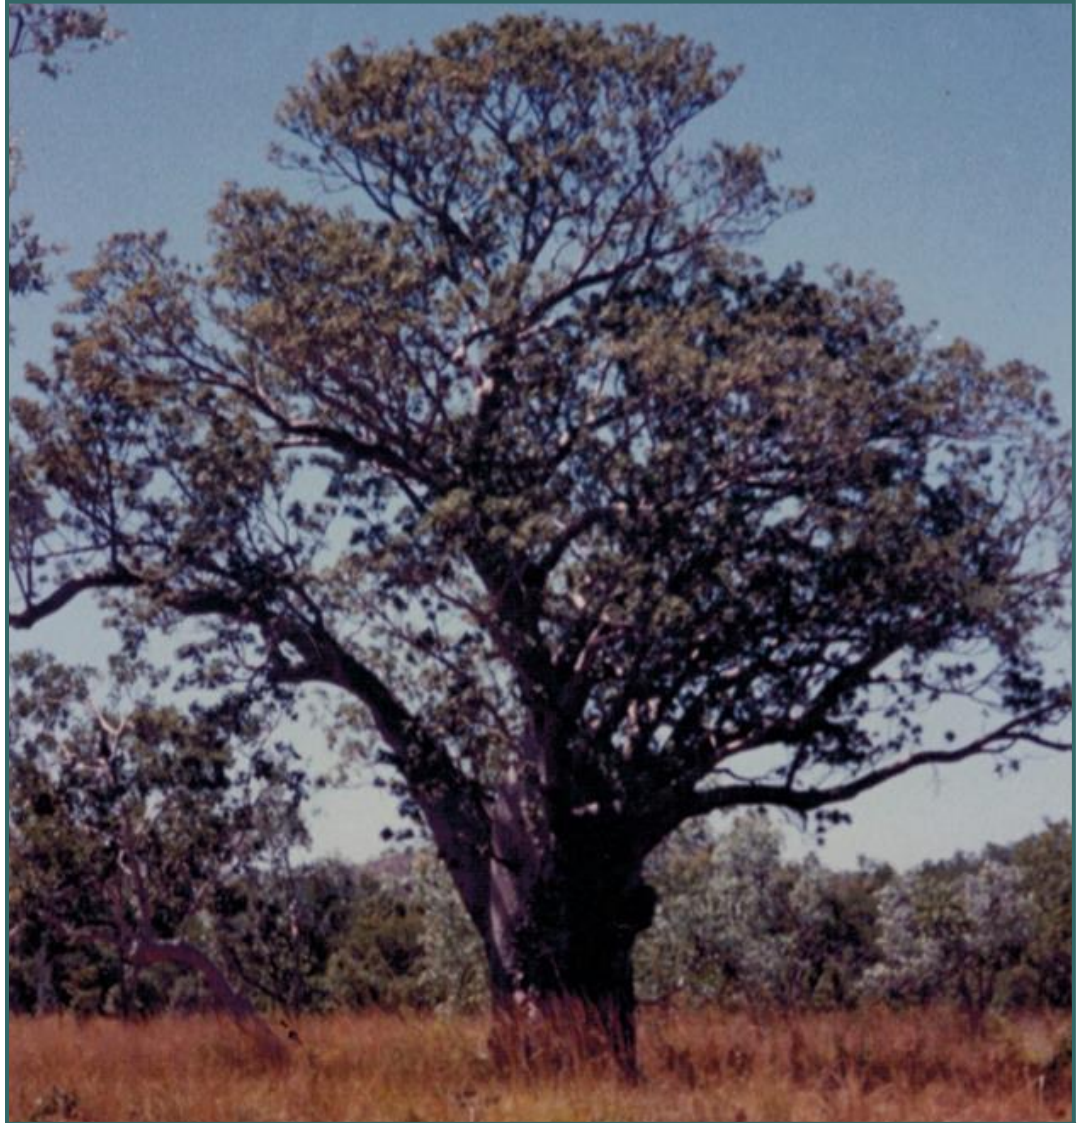

Categories of Significance:

Aesthetic

Historical

Year Listed:

1979

Markings on the tree in 1989

Marked 'H.E. LE HUNTE 1905' when Governor Sir George Le Hunte camped here with his entourage during an inspection of the top end. The Boab is five miles from Timber Creek and was marked by the Governor's aide-de-camp on the first night out. Known as 'Governor's Tree'.

Proudly sponsored by
Northern Territory Government